

Megan Barber
303.918.0987
mbarber@elitchgardens.com

Surf's Up! Visit Downtown Denver's Best Island Get Away.

Island Kingdom Water Park Opens Saturday, May 23rd!

May 23, 2009 (DENVER)—Slap on the sunscreen, grab your beach towel and get ready to catch a wave at Island Kingdom Water Park Saturday May 23rd! The water park is open from 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. and is free with admission to the theme park which is open from 10 a.m. -- 9 p.m.

Get ready to experience an assortment of wet-and-wild rides, because Island Kingdom Water Park is full of slides and attractions for those of any age to explore and enjoy. Brave adventurers can test their fears on rides like Splashdown, a 75-foot long twisting, turning raft, or Edge, a 42 foot drop down a massive slide before racing up at breath-taking speeds to the edge of the other side. Kids are free to discover interactive features of Hook's Lagoon, a five-story "tree house" with more than 150 water gadgets, sprinklers, sprays and a giant barrel overhead that drenches everyone below.

We have also added exclusive Cabana's that can be rented out for a V.I.P. experience at the water park. The Cabana's are a nice retreat in a shady tropical atmosphere including food, beverages, and other amenities. Make sure to reserve your Cabana early, space is limited!

Located in downtown Denver, Elitch Gardens is a 119-year-old tradition of affordable family fun and entertainment offering two parks in one, a family theme park and the Island Kingdom Water Park. New for 2009... Extended Summer Concert Series! 14 concerts every Saturday beginning March 9th and highlighting talent like Loverboy, Sara Evans and Raven Symone!...three new live shows: Survivor Live!, Bob the Builder Live at Elitch Gardens and Sea Lion Splash, something for everyone to enjoy!

-###-